

KENISE BARNES FINE ART

MARGARET NEILL

BIOGRAPHY

Neill has an MFA degree from Brooklyn College where she studied with Lois Dodd and Alan D'Arcangelo. She moved to New York from Ohio, where she grew up, as soon as she graduated from Hiram College with a BA degree in Art History and Studio Art. She has shown her work in over 90 exhibits in galleries and institutions across the US for over 30 years. Her work has been reviewed in Art in America, The Brooklyn Rail, and The New York Sun. She has work in numerous public, private, and museum collections including, Yale University Art Gallery, Colby College Museum of Art, Pfizer, Wellington Management, The New York Public Library, Deloitte University, The Boston Medical Center, New York Public Library, The New School University, Hiram College, Zimmerli Art Museum, Rutgers University, Ernst & Young, NYU Langone, among others.

7 Fulling Lane, Kent, CT 06757 860 592 0220

KBFA.com